GREETINGS FROM THE PREZ

It's just about show time. People are filing into the theater, the orchestra is tuning and I hear the fat lady warming up backstage. The spring series commences in just 28 days. Charlie Pendleton has dusted off an article on spring preparation that he wrote for us 5-6 years ago, and we're including it in this edition to help get you going.

A few important reminders as we ease into the season. First registration is open for everything - Fleet 5, the Class Association, MRA, East Coasts and even Nationals. For Fleet 5 and MRA, you have to register by May 5th to avoid a late fee. So put down this rag and go do that before you forget. Details are on page 2.

Second is the spring clinic, which will be held in the Fantail at the CYC on the 5th. We labor over what to do for a clinic – should we focus on strategy, tactics, boat set-up, crew work, rules or something else? After batting it around for a while, we found that the thing folks are most interested in is boat speed, which makes sense, right? Great boat speed makes anyone look like a genius. That little extra something allows you to get off the line, hold your lane, force the other guy to duck and so on. And good boat speed isn't an accident, nor is it the result of any one thing. It's the result of a combination of a lot of things, including how you manage your sails, set up your systems, prepare the bottom, drive through waves, go through the gears, spinnaker work, tacking technique and so on. It's everything.

So this year's clinic will feature a panel of four of your Fleet 5 brethren who have demonstrated pretty consistent boat speed over the years: Charlie Pendleton, Jim Taylor, Jeff Shoreman and BC sailing coach Evan "the kid" Cooke. I will moderate, ask the probing questions and generally see to it that no secret is left unrevealed. You don't want to miss this one.

Third is mast measurement day. If you've changed your mast or have bought a new one, you have to have it measured before sailing, and this gives you the opportunity to get that done with no muss or fuss. Measurer Josh Wheeler says he can measure your mast in about 15 minutes. The event will be Saturday May 7th in the EYC parking lot from 1-3pm. So if you need to do this, please let us know in advance by contacting Jim Raisides at jim@raisides.com.

Finally, the East Coasts will be held on Fathers' day weekend, which is only about six weeks away. This one will sneak up on you so start planning now. Rockport is a great venue and close enough to tow by water. I'm pretty sure there will be a few tow options this year, including old friend Mike Lane, and we'll let you know as they get organized. Sandy Bay always puts on a great show and from what I've heard, this one will be no different. So secure your hall pass and lock in your 3rd.

See you at the clinic.

Register Now! Registrations are open. Register for Fleet 5 and the Clss Association here Fleet Registration and for MRA here MRA Registration. You also can register for East Coasts here at EC Registration (go to the calendar link).

Nationals In Chicago The R19 National Regatta will be held in Chicago August 17-19. Circle the dates and start making your plans. You'll find details and register here.

Spring Clinic Fleet 5 will host its annual spring clinic at 7PM on Thursday evening May 5th in the Fantail at the CYC. This event will focus exclusively on boat speed – how to consistently squeeze max speed out of a Rhodes 19. The format will be a moderated panel of four of Fleet 5's most consistently successful sailors, including Charlie Pendleton, Jim Taylor, Jeff Shoreman and BC sailing coach Evan (the Kid) Cooke. Kim Pandapas will moderate. The CYC will provide a cash bar. This event is free and open to all, and will provide an opportunity to reconnect with fleet friends and get your motors started three weeks before Spring Series.

Mast Measurement Day Class measurer Josh Wheeler will measure masts on Saturday May 7th from 1-3pm in the EYC dry sail lot. If you have a new mast or have made modifications to your existing one, rules require you measure it, and Josh is making that easy for you. Mast measurement is quick and takes only about 15 minutes. If you plan to measure your mast, please contact Jim Raisides in advance at jim@raisides.com.

An East Coast Reminder From Rob Paterson, the Regatta Chair We want to let everyone know that registration is open for the 2016 East Coast Championships being hosted by Fleet 36 and to be held at Sandy Bay Yacht Club on June 17, 18, 19. Complete information may be found at either: www.regattaman.com (go to the calendar of events) or at www.sandybay.org. With permission from the Class we have a special condition to encourage Junior sailors to participate. Crews with members between 14 and 17 years old are being encouraged to compete. There is information on the site about charter/loaner boats and housing.

No Feedback on MRA PRO Guide Last month we asked for comment on the PRO Guide and got no response, suggesting people are generally happy with it. So based on that, there will be no changes this year. But we're always looking for feedback. If you have ideas about possible ways to improve our MRA racing, please reach out to Jim Taylor jtyd@shore.net or Kim Pandapas at kpandapas@comcast.net.

MRA Scoring Byes As it has in recent seasons, MRA will grant one optional free pass for scoring purposes, which you can use in either Series 1 or Series 2. So the bye will be available to use for East Coasts but not for nationals – plan accordingly. Boats using their bye will be scored average points for that series. To use your bye, you must contact MRA Scorer Jim Whipple at 617-720-4262 or scorer@mheadrace.org by noon the previous day.

2016 Twilight Scoring According to the MRA racing calendar located here, there will be 14 Thursday night Twilight races this summer, with series splits as follows: May 26 will be an unscored practice race, June 2, 9, 16, 23, 30 and July 7 will constitute Series 1, and July 17, 21, Aug 4, 11, 18, 25 and Sept 1 will constitute Series 2.

Co-skipper Opportunity Looking for a ride? Rick Saunders is looking for someone who wants either to co-skipper or crew this summer. Give him a call at 781-439-9767 or email sailsr19@comcast.net.

Need a Crew? Several folks have written in expressing interest in sailing R19s this season, at varying levels of commitment.

FLEET 5 TRIVIA

1. Rick Saunders rejoined the fleet in 2010 racing a Stuart. What model did he race in his first go-round, what was the boat's name and sail number?
2. How many East Coasts has Charlie Pendleton won and in what years?
3. Can you name the Fleet 5 fleet captains since 1999 and what years they served?

FLEET PROFILE – MEET LARRY EHRHARDT

Compiled by Christina Pandapas

Fleet 5 welcomed Larry Ehrhardt last summer when he hit the starting line in 2435 previously owned by Kent Hallawell and Jerry Blouin. It didn't take long for all of us to realize we needed to take this guy seriously. He served notice by finished second for the day his first time out for MRA and was pretty much in the mix every time out. So, with a season under his belt, we wanted to see what Larry thinks about Rhodes sailing. Read on to learn how Larry got hooked and insights like how big orange objects tempt young crew.

What was the first boat you ever sailed?

The first boat I remember sailing was my parents' 210 out of Marblehead Harbor in 1972. They lived in Lexington, but would make the trip to participate in MRA and sometimes take a day sail. After we moved to the Connecticut, I started sailing Dyer Dhows as part of the Junior Sailing program at American YC in Rye, NY.

What got you started in Rhodes?

People in the fleet kept talking about the close racing and great social activities. Tom Dailey lent me his boat for a couple of days of MRW in 2014 and I was hooked.

Who has been crewing for you?

Last year, probably 50/50 between Will Walters and Callie Naughton who are both excellent teammates. Also, each of my three children (Ruthie, Allen and Travis) joined the boat for a day.

Where did the name "Rallie" come from?

Rallie was the name of my Sonar and is a blend of Ruthie and Allen (the aforementioned children). Travis was not yet on the scene when we came up the the name.

What is your favorite non-sailing activity?

My favorite non-sailing sport is squash. I play a couple of times a week at the Y.

What do you do for work?

Mobile application design and development. My company, which I started five years ago, is called Ballast Lane Applications.

What is your most memorable sailing moment?

There are many, but winning the deciding race in the Halloween Team Race finals in 2014 was special as there was a small crowd (including my wife Rebecca) on the porch of EYC there to witness. It was also a really close race that could have gone either way.

What is the biggest bonehead thing you've done during a race?

In the Rhodes, it was the day I let Seamus Hourihan and Peter Frisch gybe inside of us in all three races at the windward mark and take the lead. Didn't quite get the lesson that day.

What is the biggest bonehead thing a crew of yours has done during a race?

Well it's not really a bonehead thing, but on Friday of the East Coasts last year, I needed Travis (9 at the time) to jump on the boat as a third. He had never really raced before and was very excited to be near a big orange balloon (otherwise know as the mark) and almost grabbed it as we passed by during the first rounding of the day.

What's the best tip you could give someone who is sailing a Rhodes for the first time?

I guess it would be to make sure you have the team in place so that, as skipper, you can focus all of your attention on keeping the boat moving through the water as fast as possible. It seems so easy to start going really slow if you miss a wave or fall out of the groove for even a moment.

What book are you reading?

The Big Short by Michael Lewis.

Name one thing about yourself that fellow Fleet 5 members might be surprised to know about you.

My wife and I lived in Costa Rica for a summer where we studied Spanish and travelled around the region.

A GAME OF PREPARATION by Charlie Pendleton

One of the best moments in spring is taking the cover off of your Rhodes. Whether it's cutting into the shrink wrap or untying the knots that secure the tarp, you can't help but smile and start thinking about all the great racing ahead and the stories that will come with it. There is usually a list of things that you need to do to your Rhodes that have been in your head all winter. Once you peel back the cover, that list usually grows. Most Rhodes in the Marblehead fleet were built in the late 60s and early 70s and they need ongoing attention and maintenance. A huge part of competitive sailing is preparation, the things that you do off the water.

Jim and I meet once each spring and go over the big picture items that need attention. Usually these are things that got in the way or slowed us down the prior season and require some level of re-working. This year we're re-running the traveler and replacing a halyard or two. Last year we built a new boom, and replaced the frac line. The prior year we re-varnished the floor boards with non-skid because we were slipping around too much.

With a Rhodes, the real challenge is knowing what to fix before it breaks. We regularly replace things that are working just fine. If you wait to replace equipment until it breaks, it usually costs you a race and maybe a day of racing. Here are some of the things that typically break – replace them before they do: Vang (line, blocks and shackles), boom gooseneck (check the pins/bolts), tiller extension universals, halyards, rudder pintles and gudgeons.

Before the mast is stepped, check the main, spinnaker and jib halyard sheaves to make sure they're oiled and spinning (I can hear some of you hoisting your sails from across the harbor!). Next, check your halyards and then make sure there are no frayed or snapped wires on the stays. A good trick with halyards is to remove 6 inches from the sail end. It will change the load points and get you fresh/strong line at the securing points. Inspect the spreaders and make sure they're secure and marked to help the jib trimmer – replace any electrical tape with fresh wraps. Clean and oil the stay turnbuckles. Don't forget to put the windex back on!

I'll go from bow to stern with a screw driver and a pair of pliers to make sure every screw, nut and bolt that loosened up last season is tight again. Then I'll oil blocks, cam cleats and spinnaker pole fittings to make sure they are running freely. Replace and tape ring dings if necessary. Finally, check your lines for wear and tear, (re)burn the ends to keep them from fraying and to prevent the sleeves from separating from the core.

Remember your other equipment. Replace your lifting straps every 3-4 years - even if they look fine. They are cheap to replace and I see way too many old lifting straps in use. Inspect your flotation, if it's an air bag make sure it's not leaking. Keep your trailer in good working order, flat tires make for an aggravating start to your day. Work done off the water leads to consistent results on the water. Spring is the perfect time to get your Rhodes running like a top.

SCUTTLEBUTT

Got News? Let's hear from you. Send your gossip, rumors and embarrassing tidbits to kpandapas@comcast.net.

The Kid Rocks Congrats to old friend Even 'the Kid' Cooke placed 2nd in the J70 midwinters in St. Petersburg. Looks like a breezy regatta.

Lasers Show Up In Force The Lasers kicked off their spring series on Sunday April 17 with 14 boats. Fourteen wet-and-dry suited sailors, including a few Fleet 5 members, braved the 47-degree water to sail, and the RC of Susie Schneider and Al McKinnon got off five races in two hours. Unsurprisingly, JB Braun won the day, though our own Charlie Pendleton finished 5th and Steve Uhl finished 8th. Rookie Kim Pandapas managed to beat one boat finishing 13th. Day 2 saw an even better turnout with 18 boats. Steve Uhl took 2nd that day with consistent single digit finishes that included a bullet. He now holds 2nd for the series, which will continue every Sunday through May 22 from 1-3. Get out your dry suit and get a jump on the season. For details, contact Tom Daily at tmd15@cornell.edu.

10 Fleet 5ers Sail Jackson Cup April 23-24 saw what many consider to be the unofficial start to the sailing season with the Boston Yacht Club's annual Jackson Cup Team Race. Eight teams from as far away as Newport Harbor, CA and London, England fought it out over two days of team racing in Marblehead Harbor. While the New York Yacht Club topped the fleet, the Boston team including Tomas Hornos and Ron Homa finished 2nd and earned harbor bragging rights. The Corinthian team that included Evan Cooke, Elise Nash, Karen Lubeck and Joe Fava took 3rd. The Eastern finished 6th with a team that included Matt Hooks, Beanie Eissner, Larry Ehrhardt and Peter Frisch.

New Partnership We hear that Stefan Ianchulev has decided to sell his boat and partner-up with Peter Weise. Sounds like a good trade to us. Details on Stefan's boat are listed in this month's Notices.

Excuses, Excuses You might recall that 2015 Cup champion Peter Frisch had volunteered to be on the panel for our May 5th clinic, but was later forced to beg off due to conflicts. Turns out the conflict was traveling to London with his partner

Seamus Hourihan and the EYC team to sail in the Cumberland Cup, one of the oldest trophies in the Royal Thames Yacht Club (RTYC) collection. If you're interested, the NOR can be found here.

Fast Crew Hookup If you were at the winter party, you might recall meeting Abbott Lowell. Abbott is a laser sailor interested in Rhodes, and also happens to be helping get a Nahant R19 fleet off the ground. Abbott sent in an email expressing interest in crewing, which we forwarded to a few people we thought could help. You could measure a nanosecond by the amount of time it took Steve Uhl to snap him up. Welcome to Fleet 5 Abbott.

On The Road with John Casler It's tough keeping track of old friend John Casler's offseason travels. God only knows where he took this. If you recognize it, let us know.

Happy Birthday Fleet 5 And speaking of John Casler, he determined back in 2011 that Fleet 5's was in its 50th season. So unless we're mistaken (and knowing my math skills, we could be), this 2016 season marks the fleet's 55th year. Imagine that!

Speaking of Birthdays We hear Jim Taylor recently celebrated an important milestone. We have it on good authority that the ever youthful recent national champ is now receiving social security and Medicaid. How can that be? We also hear that Anne Taylor has officially retired suggesting that Jim won't be single-handing Thursday nights any more.

Surf's Up Can anyone guess the identity of the Fleet 5 member in this picture?

Where's MoHotta? We got a lot of mail this month, and interestingly all of it asking the same question: "Where did you take MoHotta? Boy, talk about no secrets. I guess Evans Road gets a lot of traffic. (Maybe we should start closing the shades.) Anyway, just needed a little air in the tires, I swear...."
